Dear Debora, Sunday evening.

I do not exactly know how this will get to you. If Aunt Mary comes in town you can send out by her. If not, you must send out by the stage for I want the ribbon you ought to have sent it by Caroline. As Miss Simpson graciously offered to have my bonnet ready for me to wear to the meeting. I should be sorry after she had taken the pains about it to have it stopped for want of the ribbon. Caroline will tell you all the news if there be any. I am quite on the qui vive about the elections & am glad not to be looking out for them any longer. I most ardently trust that Fletcher will lose his election. Stir up all to vote against him. I am going to write a letter by & by to Garrison, the drift of which Caroline may tell you or Aunt Mary if she comes.

Yrs in haste

A. W. Weston.

Mind that Maria & all of you go to the Female A.S. meeting, for I want to know what the good people are up to.

Send this enclosed to Quincy and see that he has it in season. If I meet you I would come out with Aunt Mary.

Monday morning

I think you had better come out to night with Aunt Mary & perhaps some brother may carry you in. Or perhaps Maria will come for you. At any rate send or bring Ma some tea, a little good for one cannot Ma thinks that Warren had better go to Maria's if you can contrive it. But if Henry would feel very bad about it why do not do any thing about it, but it is what I plan that must with Ben disappointed.
